Arcata and Eureka High School dominated the Humboldt Del Norte League All-conference soccer selections which were released Friday.

The Tigers had a total of ten players, two of whom were named Co-MPVs, from both boys and girls soccer teams were selected while the Loggers had nine.

Arcata's Ben Middlemiss was named Co-MVP in the boys field while Karen Pontoni was named Co-MVP for the girls. Logger Ross Kenworthy was also named Co-MVP while Pontoni shares the recognition with South Fork's Michela Hernandez.

Matt Munther, Chris Andrews, Nate Meyers and Skylar Dean were named to the first team while Hannah Noonan, Siang Chew, Sydney Gellner and Kristin Fraga earned the recognition for Arcata.

For Eureka, Rawley Kornman, Cameron Lende, Taylor Heston, Kyle Dunaway, Brittany Vitale, Kayla Throgmorton, Aleks Dellabama, Kate Kramer, Bri Averill and Allison Green were named to first team all-conference in their respective fields.

Eight other Tigers received honorable mentions while 11 Loggers were selected.
