The Eureka football team was recognized by the Eureka City Council at its meeting Tuesday, then again by the Humboldt-Del Norte Conference when it released its all-league selections this week.

Soma Vainuku, the running back for the North Coast Section Division II champion Eureka Loggers, was named the Big 4 offensive MVP. He had 762 yards and 15 touchdowns in six games against Big 4 opponents and gained 2,202 yards and scored 38 touchdowns on the season, including the playoffs.

Fortuna senior T.J. Rice was named the Big 4 defensive MVP for his play at linebacker.

In the Little 5, Ferndale's towering linemen Dustin Walters and Silas Sarvinski were named the offensive and defensive MVPs, respectively. Walters played offensive tackle and Sarvinski defensive end.

McKinleyville quarterback Chris Pender shared the offensive MVP with Walters.
