

Debacker, Reed and Hermes top H-DN volleyball selections

The Times-Standard

The Big 5 had one obvious choice for most valuable girls volleyball player while the Little 5 came out to two.

Del Norte's Kristen Debacker earned the top nod in the All Humboldt-Del Norte Conference Volleyball selections as the Big 5 MVP earlier this week. Over in the Little 5, Southern Trinity's Kaira Hermes and Hoopa's Rachene Reed took home the MVP honor.

According to the selection list, Debacker averaged 25 kills per match along with 12 digs and had the highest serving aces on the Warriors. Joining Debacker were teammates Lexi Nelson and Paula Rhodes, who each earned White Stars.

For Eureka, Jordan Jackson and Taylor Haulk earned

White Stars. McKinleyville's Jocelyn Grondalski and Kaila Johnson also earned the honor. Fortuna's Amy McMillen and Arcata's Julie Leong also earned White Stars.

Over in the Little 5, Reed was joined by fellow Warriors Winter Nelson and Sara Lewis as White Star recipients. Southern Trinity's White Star athletes were Mercy Grimes and Desiree Powell. Ferndale had a pair of White Star picks in Jenna Pedrotti and Gaby Durrett. St. Bernard's Gillian Bryson and Taylor Reed also earned the honor. South Fork closed out the selections with Laura Fernandez and Shasta Carr earning White Stars.
