

THE EUREKA REPORTER

Jackie Christensen/The Eureka Reporter

St. Bernard senior Jared Johnson recovers a fumble in a game against Hoopa earlier this season.

H-DNC names all-league team

12/11/2005

In the Big 5, the H-DNC selected co-MVPs, one for offense and one for defense, and not surprisingly both players were from the historic Del Norte team that went undefeated in league for the first time in school history. The Warriors advanced to the second round of the North Coast Section playoffs where they lost to Marin Catholic for their first and only loss of the season.

Taking MVP honors on the offensive side of the ball was wide receiver Garrett Standing, and on defense, it was linebacker Sean Reed.

In the Little 4, Ferndale's senior quarterback Tommy Jorgensen was named MVP as he helped his team once again advance to the NCS championship game where the Wildcats lost in a fourth-quarter comeback to Salesian.

Del Norte had eight of its players selected to the all-league team and four made honorable mention.

Standing, Reed, Rudy Navarro, Nick Cowen, Hans Grant, Kyle Newton, Chad Freeman and Troy Clark made all-league, while Brian Hernandez, Dusty Thomas, Harold Jones and Max Perez made honorable mention.

The Loggers had six seniors named all-league as David Tupua, Sean Retzloff, Casey Grunden, Josh Hash, Tim Pratt and Eddie Stachel received the White Star.

Tony Xayavong, Terry Gruetzmacher, Brandon Vitale and Matt Richards received honorable mention.

For Fortuna, Collin Humphrey, Zach Anaya, Casey O'Day and Justin Primofiorie made all-league. Miles Callihan, Brandon Chairez, Ryan Riddle, Brian Reid, Ali Cervantes and Dylan Hansen made honorable mention.

Arcata's Nick Jonte and Matt Adkins were named all-league and David Seda, Tyler Capps, Ben Mielke, Tyler Myers, Rusty Taylor and Jake McCarty made honorable mention.

McKinleyville had two all-league players, Bailey Mason and Andrew Hauger and had Wyatt Orismi, Chris Tucker and Andy Miller on the honorable mention team.

In the Little 4 Ferndale had eight players make all-league, Jorgensen, Casey Sarvinski, Sam Morris, Derek Hansen, Lincoln Morrell, Brandon Lorenzo, John Thurston and Chris Hubbard. Making honorable mention was Alex Renner, Jeff Hindley and Matt Pedrotti.

South Fork had six players named to the all-league team, Kyle Terrell, Chris Nevarez, Justin Lyon, Scott Arreguin, Auzlo Gibb and Josh MacDonald. Casey Brockenstein, Alejandro Perussina, Zach Harrison, Derek Lockhart and Craig Eichen made honorable mention.

For Hoopa, Robbie Gammill, Michael Boak, Rico Tello and Joe Nix were all-league, while Bill Sylvia, Robbie Almodovar, Alex Pratt, Gino O'Rourke and Talbert Alvarado made honorable mention.

St. Bernard's had two players selected for all-league, Jared Johnson and Vince Ayala, while Daniel Carroll, Anthony Ivancich, Cameron Opp, Mike Ponte, Seth Agajanian and Greg Meyer made honorable mention.

Copyright (C) 2005, The Eureka Reporter. All rights reserved.