The primary purpose of the South Fork Booster Club is to promote sportsmanship, to enhance school spirit and to raise fund to support the athletic programs at South Fork High School. The Booster Club operates the snack shack at all home athletic events. It runs totally on volunteer help. Your help is needed, especially if your student plays sports.

I am willing to help in the snack shack during the following seasons:

- |                                   |  |                                    |                                     |
